

RAJENDRA R. SHAH,
M.D., F.A.C.S.

Rajendra R. Shah, M.D. is a double board certified plastic surgeon specializing in facial aesthetic rejuvenation. He has practiced in the Chicago area for most of his medical career. After finishing his residency, Dr. Shah returned to the Chicago area where he opened his private practice and has been a member on staff at Christ Hospital since 1983.

MEET YOUR BOARD CERTIFIED PLASTIC SURGEON EDUCATION

After receiving his medical degree in India, Dr. Shah completed his general surgery residency at Rush-Presbyterian-St. Luke's Hospital in Chicago, IL, before entering the plastic surgery residency program at Ohio State University in Columbus, OH.

Dr. Shah served as a clinical instructor at Ohio State University, then as an assistant professor in the Department of Plastic Surgery at Rush Medical College in Chicago, IL, until 1994.

FAMILY & FUN FACTS

- He is currently a clinical assistant professor in the Department of Plastic Surgery at the University of Illinois at Chicago.
- He has been involved in training plastic surgery residents for over 15 years.
- He routinely lectures at the University on various topics in cosmetic surgery. Teaching the new generation of plastic surgeons has been a rewarding experience for Dr. Shah.
- He has served as President of the Chicago Society of Plastic Surgeons and is past President of the Midwestern Association of Plastic Surgeons.
- He has made numerous professional presentations and authored several articles on plastic surgery.
- Dr. Shah has two sons and a daughter and resides in the Chicago suburbs with his wife.
- Dr. Shah is an avid golfer and loves bowling.
- He has a network of friends who enjoy playing bridge and musical recitals.
- Dr. Shah is grateful to have the unique opportunity to work with his son!